Hello Todos Curanderos team,

You are hiring a Social Media manager for 6 to 8 months, but the real job is bigger than posting: turn 20,000 Spotify listeners and a 600-person email list into qualified global leads.

My view is that Todos needs a managed growth system, not just a content calendar. The English and French audience split makes strategy, tracking, and lead capture just as important as daily social management.

The short plan below shows how I would compare the role-hire path against a done-for-you team.
