Hi Byron,

You are trying to grow a Skool community that launched last month, on a commission model tied to $99/month members.

My plain opinion: this only works if the growth system is built around qualified lead flow and retention, not just more traffic. The offer has to educate people on business brokerage before it asks them to join.

I laid out the diagnosis, first actions, 90-day execution plan, pricing, and fit check on the page.
