Hi Mattia,

You need a Growth Marketing Lead who owns the plan, channels, partnerships, and daily execution from day one. My honest take: this is less a deck problem and more an operating system for turning beta golfers into paying founding members.

The page lays out how we would cover 360 marketing, creator outreach, content, direct response, partnerships, offline activations, and tracking without waiting on a single hire to ramp.

Use it as a quick fit check.
