Hi Chris,

You are not trying to hire a cold outbound SDR. You need someone to keep warm relationships alive, turn the founder's track record into LinkedIn demand, and build the AI workflows behind it.

I think this is closer to a small growth pod than one part-time hire. The risk is one person needing taste, CRM discipline, LinkedIn judgment, and builder-level automation at the same time.

The page lays out how I would run the first 90 days against SellerSoar's exact trial criteria, so you can judge fit quickly.
